SAINTS, SPIRITS AND CEMETERIES: HUMAN REMAINS AND RITUAL PRACTICE IN FLORIDA COMMUNITIES

On Tuesday, January 8, Dr. Allysha Winburn from the UWF Department of Anthropology will present the program at our January monthly membership meeting. Dr. Winburn teaches biological anthropology and related courses. She is a forensic anthropologist and bioarchaeologist with special interests in the ritual use of human remains.

Join us at 7 pm at the Bowden Building, 120 Church Street for a very interesting program and refreshments afterwards.
